

Theresia Maria Wuttke - Vita

Banker, educator, depth psychologist, meditation teacher – Zen, author, business management coach and consultant, teaching and master coach, family and health coach and youth coach.

Since 1981 she has been training and educating executives from the business and health care sectors. Her innovative work, in the value-based corporate and personnel development “business-and-spirit®”, which she developed, has been successfully applied as an integral business and management consultant and coach in medium-sized companies and corporations since 2000. She is a board member of Theos Consulting AG, which she and Professor Dr. Dr. Heinrich Reents and several partners founded in 2011.

In the integral academy of Theos-Consulting AG she trains as an integral coach and consultant, integral health coach and family and youth coach. She is the founder and chairwoman of the non-profit organisation Lebensfluss, which has been dedicated to working with people across the generations for 15 years. She supports children and young people through the pedagogical concept she has developed: “Life Entrepreneur from the Very Beginning”.
